

Regina Coin Club

P.O. Box 174, Regina, Sask.

Page 1 of 1

Privacy Policy

When potential applicant(s) apply for membership in the Regina Coin Club, the following information is requested by the Club:

- 1) Name of individual(s) or name of organization and;
- 2) Complete mailing address and;
- 3) Phone number(s) and;
- 4) e-mail address.

When membership is approved, the information received will be added to Regina Coin Clubs' master membership list. This membership list is shared only with specific officers of the club and specific Committee Chairs as required for club business.

This information is used only by the Club to forward Club information to the members such as, but not limited to, newsletters, show posters, or upcoming events. Information will also be used to track years of membership for Loyalty Pin awards. You might also be contacted to volunteer at upcoming events.

The Regina Coin Club does not and will not share or sell any member's information to any third party persons or organization.